

Quench your thirst for knowledge at Science Pub

In communities across the country, neighbors are gathering for informal lectures in a pub setting. Come to Science Pub at local restaurants and learn something new from Castleton State College professors and area experts.

When Nature Was Supreme

Dr. Jonathan Spiro, Chair, History Department

The infamous eugenics movement of the first half of the 20th century influenced the U.S. ban on immigration, the sterilization of thousands of our citizens, and the Nazis – all in the name of science.

Sunday, January 8, 4 p.m.

Iron Lantern Restaurant

272 Route 4a, Castleton

Climate Change and Vermont

Dr. Alan Betts, Atmospheric Research, <http://alanbetts.com>

Winters are shrinking and floods are increasing as the Earth's climate warms. How do we deal with what lies ahead?

Sunday, February 5th, 4 p.m.

Lakehouse Pub & Grille

Route 30, 3 miles north of Route 4, Castleton

The Ambivalent Egg: Gender and the Olympics

Dr. Mark Fox, Professor of Biology

The story of gender development and controversy in humans

Sunday, March 4th, 4 p.m.

Location to be determined.

Free event, except for any drinks or food you order.

For more information:

www.castletonfreelibrary.org/friends/
468-5574

Sponsored by:

FRIENDS OF THE
CASTLETON FREE
LIBRARY

